INSTRUCTIONS FOR FOWL GARDEN TOUR TICKET HOLDERS

- Ticket purchasers must list the names of all persons for whom tickets are being purchased to facilitate entry to gated communities.
- Begin the tour by picking up your wristband and map at the Waccamaw Neck Library from 9:45 a.m. to 12:00 p.m.
- Wristbands will be given at check-in and required for all garden sites.
- No strollers or children under ten years of age are permitted.
- Carpooling is encouraged. Parking is limited at some homes. In cars with three or more people, each person will be entered in a raffle for a $50 gift card to Bistro 217. BE SURE to get your raffle ticket as you leave the library parking lots and keep your stub.
- Do NOT rely on GPS for directions. Please follow the map on the brochure that you will receive at check-in.
- Willbrook Plantation
  - Use the Willbrook Road entrance -- Not the Kings River Road gate.
  - When exiting out the Kings River Road gate, pull up to the gate to activate.
- Do not block driveways or mailboxes at any location.
- There may be moderate walking and uneven ground at gardens.
- No designated handicapped parking is available at the gardens.
- Public restrooms at the library will be available throughout the tour. Restrooms are NOT available at any of the gardens.
- Blue Whale Farm will open at 11 a.m. and close at 3 p.m. on May 18. Parking is across the street at Precious Blood of Christ Church.
- Jeremiah's Lunch Box food truck will be available at Blue Whale Farm on Saturday, May 18 from 11 a.m. to 2:30 p.m.
- If the tour is held on the rain date of Sunday, May 19, Blue Whale Farm will not open until 12:30 p.m. Jeremiah's Lunch Box food truck will then be available from 12:30 p.m. to 2:30 p.m. Blue Whale Farm will close at 3 p.m. on Sunday.
- In the event that both days are rained out, ticket purchases will become fully tax-deductible donations to Friends of the Waccamaw Library.
- Raffle ticket winner, rain date, and other information will appear on our website thefowl.org and our Facebook page "Friends of the Waccamaw Library."
